& Strange Story From the City of Brother

ly Love. PHILADELPHIA, PA., August 15.-Miss Adrianna Psyche Brinkle has just been released from the State Lunatic Asylum, where she has been confined for twentyseven years on the extraordinary charge of "extravagance and eccentricity." She is Co the daughter of the late Dr. William John Ross, Pueblo County, Col..... John Herspenger, Pueblo County, Brinkle, a physician who enjoyed a large practice and moved in the highest circles of Lankford Brothers, Pueblo County, society here thirty years ago. Miss Brinkle was an acknowledged belle, a woman of great beauty and accomplishments. She was extremely extravagant and an unfortunate change in the financial standing of her father made it impossible for him to pay her bills as he had done before. Adrianna was unable to overcome her extravagant tastes, and without knowing anything of the law in such cases ordered a pisno and set of furniture, which she sold before paying for them. This proceeding scandalized the set to which the Brinkles belonged, and as it was stated at the time "to save the family honor," Miss Brinkle was sent to the asylum, entering the institution in July, 1880. When the twelfth national conference of charities and corrections met in Washington last June one of the delegates ful and charming young lady, used to wealth, is extravagant, and her father being reduced in circumstances finds himself unable to restrain her habit of spending. But still woman almost abandoned hope. The rep-Lunacy visited her, however, and then the order came and she was sent out a free woman. Upon her arrival in this city, she was taken to the Convalescents' Retirate, near Glen Mills, where she is being tenderly cared for. The workmen repairing the fan were the first overcome with the gas. About an hour later the same fate happened to many more in the mine. Before the men fairly realized their danger more than twenty were unconscious. Those who could then escape did so. Superintendent John Teasdale and several of his men became unconscious and were with difficulty rescued. Others went down and in the face of immense difficulties and in spite of being continually overpowered gas got out all but ten men. Four of those brought out were dead. Among those seriously overcome with gas and padly injured are Burt Tromer, Thomas Hutchinson, John Andrews, John Teasdale, jr., Henry Croup, John Eastley, William Good, Fred Howe and others whose names can not be learned at present writing. people of Camden, N. FATAL FIRE AT LEAVENWORTH. The Oatmeal Works Destroyed and Several Persons Killed and Injured.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., August 11 .- A disastrous fire broke out in the Leavenworth oatmeal mill here shortly after six o'clock last evening which resulted in a loss of over $75,000. The fire started in the sixth story of the mill building where the dust rooms are situated and is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The flames spread rapidly down through the chutes leading to the grain bins in the lower stories and in fifteen minutes the immense building was in flames. About this time the timbers, supporting the upper way and the front wall fell over. Several firemen and a number of others were raising a ladder to the upper floor windows company's mines at Mockaqua, fifteen miles at the time and the greatest excitement prevailed, as it was feared that several had been buried beneath the falling brick and timbers. As soon as the cloud of dust and smoke cleared off several injured persons air. Four men were brought to the surface, were taken out of the ruins. John Soran, a fireman, received a severe scalp wound and was generally bruised up, and it is feared is injured internally. Gus Mettier, a young man who was assisting with the ladwent off duty the fan broke. The boss ler, was also taken out and it is thought knew of this and so did the men of the day that he will die, having received a dangershift before they entered the mine, but not ous scalp wound and sustained internal inwithstanding this they went into the mine juries, George Brady, Charles Rutaking great risk. There were about thirty Ed. Shroder and several others received injuries. The entire building was soon enveloped in flames and it looked for a while as though the whole block of buildings adjoining would go, but the efforts of the firemen and the heavy partition walls saved them. This did not satisfy the firemen and volunteers, and as soon as possible after the heat had subsided men set to work digging in the ruins. Shortly before midnight the body of a young white man, aged apparently twenty-one years, was taken from the ruins. The corpse was carried to the police headquarters, where it was found that it was that of Edward McGonigle. It is feared now that several more persons will found in the ruins, at which men will work all night. The oatmeal mill was owned by a stock company and carried on an extensive business. having several large Government contracts. It was built a little over a year ago and the building and machinery cost $55,000. The stock of grain and mill feed on hand is estimated at $15,000, making a total loss of $70,000, on which there is insurance of about $35,000 or $40,000. The boot and shoe stock of Catlin & Knox, adjoining, was badly damaged by water, but is fully covered by insurance, $10,000 having been taken out as late as four o'clock yesterday evening. The Leavenworth Times office was also on fire and was flooded by water, damaging stock to the amount of $2,000, which is also covered by insurance. The Post-office being in danger Postmaster Lynch

He looks cheerful and says he never felt better in his life. The officers were equally reticent, declining to discuss the subject of the crime or Maxwell's supposed connection therewith-He will be taken East to-day.
